

Academic Support FAQs

Guidance on academic support, meetings, and resources. To arrange a meeting, use the contact form linked in the final answer.

01 What is academic support?

Academic support provides guidance, strategies, and resources to help you strengthen your academic performance and feel more confident in your coursework.

02 Who can request academic support?

Any pharmacy student may request support. You do not need to be failing a course or experiencing academic difficulty to schedule a meeting.

03 What can the Academic Success Coordinator help me with?

The Academic Success Coordinator can assist with study planning, time management, test-taking strategies, academic goal setting, accountability, and connections to tutoring or university resources.

04 Is academic support the same as tutoring?

No. Academic support focuses on your overall learning strategies and academic plan. If you need help with specific course content, the Academic Success Coordinator can help connect you with appropriate tutoring or faculty resources.

05 What happens during an academic-support meeting?

You will discuss your concerns, goals, current study habits, and possible barriers to success. Together, you and the Academic Success Coordinator can develop practical next steps or a Student Success Plan.

06 How should I prepare for the meeting?

Consider bringing your class schedule, assessment calendar, recent grades, study schedule, and questions you would like to discuss.

07 Are meetings available in person or online?

Meeting options may include in-person or Zoom appointments, depending on availability.

08 How long is a meeting?

Most meetings are approximately 30 minutes. Additional time or follow-up meetings may be scheduled when needed.

09 Can I schedule follow-up meetings?

Yes. Follow-up meetings can provide accountability, help monitor your progress, and allow you to adjust your academic plan.

10 Will my faculty advisor be notified?

Information may be shared when appropriate to coordinate academic support. The Academic Success Coordinator can explain how information will be handled during your meeting.

11 How do I request a meeting?

Complete the meeting request form. The Academic Success Coordinator will contact you to confirm an available appointment.
