

Progressions Support FAQs

Answers about the committee meeting and how to prepare beforehand. To request preparation support, use the contact form linked in the final answer.

01 What is a Progressions Committee meeting?

A Progressions Committee meeting is a formal meeting held when a student's academic performance or progression in the program requires review.

02 Why am I being asked to attend?

You should receive information explaining the reason for the meeting. If anything is unclear, you may ask for additional information before the meeting.

03 Who attends the meeting?

The meeting may include voting committee members, the committee chair, designated school representatives, and the student. Attendance may vary depending on the circumstances.

04 What should I expect during the meeting?

You will have an opportunity to share your perspective and respond to questions. The committee will review your academic record and other relevant information before determining the next steps.

05 How can I prepare?

Review your academic record, reflect on the circumstances that affected your performance, identify your goals, and prepare to explain your perspective clearly and respectfully.

06 What should I bring?

You may want to bring an unofficial transcript, written talking points, an academic improvement plan, or relevant supporting documentation.

07 Can I submit supporting documentation?

Possibly. Ask the appropriate school representative what documentation may be submitted, where it should be sent, and the deadline for submission.

08 What questions can I ask before the meeting?

You may ask about the purpose of the meeting, who will attend, what information will be considered, possible outcomes, and what support or resources are available.

09 Can the Academic Success Coordinator attend the committee meeting with me?

The Academic Success Coordinator's role is to help you prepare beforehand. Whether another person may attend the formal meeting depends on school policies and should be confirmed in advance.

10 Can the Academic Success Coordinator tell me what decision the committee will make?

No. The Academic Success Coordinator can explain the process, help you organize your thoughts, and assist with preparation, but cannot predict or influence the committee's decision.

11 Does meeting with the Academic Success Coordinator guarantee a favorable outcome?

No. Preparation support does not guarantee a particular committee decision.

12 When will I receive the committee's decision?

The committee or appropriate school representative will explain when and how you will receive the decision and any required next steps.

13 What happens after the meeting?

Depending on the decision, you may receive recommendations, academic requirements, conditions for continued enrollment, or other next steps.

14 How do I request preparation support?

Complete the meeting request form and indicate that you want Progressions Meeting Preparation. Submit the request as early as possible so there is enough time to prepare.
